

Amman, May 16, 2015

MEMORANDUM OF COOPERATION BETWEEN
STONINGTON POINT PARTNERS, WASHINGTON DC, USA
AND
INTERNATIONAL GOVERNANCE CONSULTING GROUP, *PRISTINA, KOSOVO

Stonington Point Partners and International Governance Consulting Group (IGCG) have come together in efforts to promote principles of good governance and representative and inclusive political systems Worldwide, towards more prosperous and politically and economically more viable societies.

Under this Memorandum of Cooperation the two organizations will support each other in the following areas:

- Strategic communications
- Strategic planning and policy development
- Governance strategic consulting for local and national institutions
- Capacity building and training programs
- Inter cultural and Religious dialogue
- Public opinion and market research and surveys
- Strategic consultations for political leaderships
- Public outreach and public relations

Stonington Point Partners is a strategic communications and management consulting firm dedicated to helping our multinational clients explore their opportunities and achieve their goals. We are dedicated to the proposition that our actions and those of our clients can make a positive difference in the lives of others at home and around the world. Stonington Point Partners will always work with our clients to chart a path forward no matter how complex or great the challenge.

International Governance Consulting Group is a consulting firm dedicated to examining, advising and assisting governance strategy development, capacity building and training programs, structural reforms, political communication, corporate governance and inter religious and cultural dialogue in the countries of the Western Balkans and the Middle East. IGCG has emerged from working on these subjects for more than fifteen years with the international organizations and more than eight years with the Kosovo Local Government Institute, a think tank focused on capacity building programs.

Scott Bates
President
Stonington Point Partners

Besnik Tahiri
Executive Director
IGCG